Registration Guide

The convention transportation package is strongly encouraged due to the extreme unpredictability of Atlanta traffic. However, all Convention sessions are 100% "opt-in" to accommodate those who wish to use self-arranged transportation instead. You do not have to stay within prescribed "tracks" but please choose your sessions carefully based on this guide to avoid logistical conflicts in your schedule.

On days with groups of events (Group A/B, etc.), those using convention transportation must select events within a single group. Attendees wishing to attend events from multiple groups on the same day (i.e., one from Group C and one from Group D) must arrange their own transportation.

Monday

NYACOP Finals: FYI, Buses will cycle hourly to and from the Convention Hotel. The last bus will leave First Presbyterian Church at 5pm or when the event is finished (if before 5pm).

Tuesday

Morning: FYI, Following the worship service at Ebenezer Baptist Church, attendees can return to the hotel or stay to enjoy the Martin Luther King, Jr. Historical Site. Buses will depart for the hotel after worship, and at 11:30am and 12:30pm.

Afternoon: Two groups of events – Group A and B.

If an event in Group A is chosen for the 1pm session, an event must also be chosen in Group A for the 3pm session. The same applies to Group B.

For Group A, there will be buses returning to the hotel following the 1pm session for those not wishing to attend the 3pm session.

Buses for Group B will not return to the hotel between sessions.

Wednesday

If an event in Group C is chosen for the 2pm session, an event must also be chosen in Group C for the 3:30pm session. The same applies to Group D.

There will be buses returning to the hotel following the 2pm sessions for those not wishing to attend the 3:30pm sessions.

Evening: Both events are on the campus of Emory University so attendees will walk between the two events. Buses will be available to return to the hotel following both performances.

Friday

- Recital at Spivey Hall
- Rising Stars recital at Atlanta First UMC (walking distance—no transportation provided)
